No. 115

TOKYO, July 6, 1926

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that my Government is desirous of concluding an arrangement with the Imperial Japanese Government, by exchange of notes, to the following effect:

The Government of the United States will agree to collect no fees for passport visas or applications therefor from subjects of Japan who desire to visit the United States, including insular possessions, temporarily as tourists or temporarily for business or pleasure or who go in continuous transit through the United States or who, having been lawfully admitted to the United States, later go in transit from one part of the United States to another through foreign contiguous territory or who are entitled to enter the United States solely to carry on trade under, and in pursuance of, the present existing treaty of commerce and navigation, provided the Government of Japan will not require visa fees of citizens of the United States of like classes and under like circumstances.

This arrangement could, of course, be terminated at the will of either Government.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration

CHARLES MACVEAGH

His Excellency

Baron SHIDEHARA,

His Imperial Japanese Majesty's

Minister for Foreign Affairs,

etc.
