22 Stat. 991; Treaty Series 334

The President of the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Spain, being satisfied of the propriety of adding some articles to the extradition convention concluded between the United States and Spain on the 5th day of January, 1877,² with a view to the better administration of justice and the prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, have resolved to conclude a supplementary convention for that purpose, and have appointed as their plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States, Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Esquire, Secretary of State of the United States; and His Majesty the King of Spain, His Excellency Don Francisco Barca, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal American Order of Isabel la Católica, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary near the Government of the United States;

Who, after having reciprocally exhibited their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I

Paragraph 5 of Article II. of the aforesaid Convention of January 5, 1877, is abrogated, and the following substituted:

5. Crimes committed at sea:

- (a) Piracy, as commonly known and defined by the law of nations.
