53 Stat. 1561; Treaty Series 934

The United States of America and the Kingdom of Norway being desirous of enlarging the list of crimes on account of which extradition may be granted under the treaty concluded between the United States of America and Norway on June 7, 1893,¹ with a view to the better administration of justice and prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, have resolved to conclude a supplemental treaty for this purpose and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States of America,

Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State of the United States of America; and

His Majesty the King of Norway:

Mr. Wilhelm Munthe de Morgenstierne, his Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in Washington; who, having communicated to each other their respective full powers, which were found to be in due and proper form, have agreed to and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I

The following crimes are added to the list of crimes numbered 1 to 12 in Article II of the said treaty of June 7, 1893, on account of which extradition may be granted, that is to say:

13. Crimes or offenses against the bankruptcy laws, provided that the act may be punished in the United States as a felony and in Norway is a crime
