

CUSTOMS PRIVILEGES FOR CONSULAR OFFICERS

Exchanges of notes at Washington July 28, September 17 and 19, and October 4, 1934

Entered into force October 4, 1934; operative October 15, 1934

Department of State files

The Lithuanian Chargé d'Affaires ad interim to the Secretary of State

LÉGATION DE LITHUANIE

JULY 28, 1934

SIR:

In accordance with instructions from my Government, I have the honor to inquire whether the Government of the United States of America is disposed to enter into a reciprocal agreement whereby it would be willing to extend to Lithuanian consular officers in the United States, who are nationals of Lithuania, and who are not engaged in any business, and their families, the privilege of importing articles for their personal use free of duty during their official residence in the United States, with the understanding that no article whose importation into the United States in any quantity whatsoever is not permitted shall be imported by them.

In the event that the extension of the above mentioned privilege to Lithuanian consular officers on the basis of reciprocity is acceptable to the Government of the United States, I shall be pleased to receive a suggestion as to the date on which the arrangement shall enter into effect.

Accept, Sir, the renewed assurance of my high consideration.

M. BAGDONAS
Chargé d'Affaires a.i.

The Honorable CORDELL HULL,
Secretary of State,
Washington, D.C.

The Secretary of State to the Lithuanian Chargé d'Affaires ad interim

SEPTEMBER 17, 1934

SIR:

Further reference is made to your note of July 28, 1934, inquiring whether this Government would be disposed to enter into a reciprocal agreement