The American Minister to the Minister of Foreign Affairs

RIGA, LATVIA
September 14, 1929

EXCELLENCY:

For the information of the competent Lithuanian authorities I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that Lithuanian citizens have the same right to register trade marks in the Patent Office of the United States as its own citizens, providing that the applications for such registrations are prepared and executed in accordance with the laws of the United States.

It is assumed that the Lithuanian Patent Office will register trade marks of American citizens if the applicants observe the laws and regulations when making application for such registration.

I will appreciate Your Excellency's confirmation of this reciprocal privilege in order that I may so inform my Government.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurance of my highest consideration.

F. W. B. COLEMAN
American Minister

His Excellency

A. VOLDEMARAS,
