24 Stat. 1015; Treaty Series 191

The President of the United States of America and His Majesty the Emperor of Japan having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice, and to the prevention of crime within the two countries and their jurisdictions, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes or offences hereinafter named and being fugitives from justice,

¹ The Senate resolution of advice and consent contained the following amendments: Article II, paragraph 1, after the word "murder" where it first occurs, insert the word "and"; after the word "murder" where it occurs the second time, delete "and manslaughter".

Article II, paragraph 4, after the word "depositories" delete the following: "; and embezzlement by any person hired, salaried or employed, to the detriment of the employer or principal".

Article II, paragraph 5, delete "Larceny, of the value of fifty dollars and upwards, and" so that the amended paragraph reads "5. Robbery."

Article II, paragraph 14. Delete all of paragraph 14 reading as follows: "Fraud by a banker or a trustee, or by an officer or a director of a bank or trust company, made criminal by any laws for the time being in force."

Article IV, add, at the end, the words "or for any offense other than that in respect of which the extradition is granted".

Article VI, after the word "telegraph" insert the words "or other written communication"; after "that a" insert "lawful"; after "competent authority" insert "upon probable cause"; after "endeavor to procure" insert "so far as it lawfully may".

The text printed here is the amended text as proclaimed by the President.
