12 Stat. 1199; Treaty Series 209³

TREATY BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE UNITED MEXICAN STATES FOR THE EXTRADITION OF CRIMINALS

The United States of America and the United Mexican States, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, that persons charged with the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up, have resolved to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, and have named as their respective Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:

The President of the United States of America has appointed Thomas Corwin, a citizen of the United States and their Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary near the Mexican Government; and

The President of the United Mexican States has appointed Sebastian Lerdo de Tejada, a citizen of the said States and a Deputy of the Congress of the Union.

"Strike out of Article Third, the following words: 'or embezzlement by any person or persons hired or salaried to the detriment of their employers.'"

The text printed here is the amended text as proclaimed by the President.

² Pursuant to notice of termination given by Mexico Jan. 24, 1898.
