NOTE VERBALE

The Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs has the honor to inform the Embassy of the United States of America that, beginning on March 1st, next, all American citizens who come to Italy will be relieved of the necessity of having an Italian Consular visa on their passports.

The Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs, while requesting the American Embassy to bring the above-mentioned communication to the attention of its Government, also for the information of those American citizens who may be interested therein, has the honor to inquire whether, with reference to the contents of the Embassy's Note Verbale of April 6, 1925, the latter would be disposed to request instructions from its Government in order to assure the Royal Government that there will be applied, beginning with the same date, to non-immigrant Italians who proceed to the United States the exemption from the fees for passport visas as provided in the aforesaid Note Verbale; and awaits a response thereto.
