The Acting Secretary of State to the Mexican Ambassador

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON
Jun 21 1949

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to refer to the agreement between the United States of America and the United Mexican States regarding a cooperative program for anthropological research and investigation which was effected by an exchange of notes signed at Mexico, D.F., on December 4, 1943 and April 19, 1944,² and to inform Your Excellency that the Government of the United States of America agrees to the continuance of the cooperative program of anthropological research and investigation in Mexico, which shall be carried on by the Smithsonian Institution on behalf of the Government of the United States of America and by the Instituto Nacional de Antropología e Historia of the Ministry of Public Education on behalf of the Government of the United Mexican States in accordance with the following principles and procedures:

1. General Provisions. The general objectives of the cooperative program of anthropological research and investigation shall be:

- (a) to provide university and field training for students in anthropology, ethnology, linguistics, and related fields of scientific investigation;
- (b) to promote long-range cooperative programs of anthropological field research among the indigenous peoples of Mexico, designed to afford opportunities for student training in field work and to secure significant basic data for an understanding of the rural peoples of the Americas;

¹ Pursuant to notice of termination given by the United States May 2, 1952.
