49 Stat. 3195; Treaty Series 890

The President of the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Sweden, being desirous of regulating the question of exemption from military obligations of persons possessing the nationality of both the High Contracting Parties, have decided to enter into a Convention for that purpose, and have appointed as Their Plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States of America:

The Honorable John Motley Morehead, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States of America at Stockholm;

His Majesty the King of Sweden:

Mr. Osten Undén, acting Chief of His Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Minister without portfolio; who, having communicated their full powers found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1

A person possessing the nationality of both the High Contracting Parties who habitually resides in the territory of one of them and who is in fact most closely connected with that Party shall be exempt from all military obligations in the territory of the other Party.

ARTICLE 2

The present Convention shall be ratified by the President of the United States of America, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof, and by His Majesty the King of Sweden with the consent of the Riksdag of
