49 Stat. 3077; Treaty Series 879

The United States of America and the Republic of Lithuania desiring to promote the cause of justice by enlarging the list of crimes on account of which extradition may be granted under the Treaty concluded between the United States of America and the Republic of Lithuania on April 9, 1924,<sup>1</sup> have resolved to conclude a Supplementary Treaty for this purpose and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries, to wit:

The President of the United States of America, Cordell Hull, Secretary of State of the United States of America; and

The President of the Republic of Lithuania, Mikas Bagdonas, Chargé d'Affaires ad interim of the Republic of Lithuania at Washington,

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, which were found to be in due and proper form, have agreed to and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I

The following crimes are added to the list of crimes numbered 1 to 24 in Article II of the said Treaty of April 9, 1924, on account of which extradition may be granted, that is to say:

25. Crimes and offenses against the bankruptcy laws.

26. Crimes and offenses, or attempted crimes or offenses, against the laws relating to the traffic in narcotic drugs.
