49 Stat. 3192; Treaty Series 889

The President of the United States of America and the Swiss Federal Council, animated by the desire of assuring a better administration of justice and suppressing crime on their territory and under their jurisdiction, have resolved to conclude an additional treaty enlarging the list of the crimes or offenses which are extraditable under the treaty concluded, May 14, 1900,<sup>1</sup> between the United States of America and Switzerland and have named as their Plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States of America: Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State of the United States of America;

The Swiss Federal Council: Mr. Marc Peter, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Swiss Confederation to the United States of America;

Who, after having exchanged their full powers, which were found to be in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE I

The following crimes or offenses shall be added to the list of the crimes or offenses for which extradition may be granted, enumerated under Numbers 1 to 11 in Article II of the said treaty of May 14, 1900, to wit:

12. Fraudulent bankruptcy.

13. Intentional violation of the laws relative to narcotics provided such
