8 Stat. 464; Treaty Series 204²

A Treaty having been concluded and signed in the City of Mexico on the 12th day of January 1828³ between the United States of America and the Mexican United States for the purpose of establishing the true dividing line and boundary between the two Nations the 3d article of which Treaty is as follows "To fix this line with more precision and to place the land marks which shall designate exactly the limits of both Nations each of the contracting parties shall appoint a Commissioner and a Surveyor who shall meet before the termination of one year from the date of the ratification of this Treaty at Natchitoches on the Red River, and proceed to run and mark said line from the Mouth of the Sabine to the Red River and from the Red River to the River Arkansas and to ascertain the latitude of the source of said River Arkansas in conformity to what is agreed upon and stipulated and the line of Latitude 42 to the South Sea. They shall make out plans and keep journals of their proceedings and the result agreed upon by them shall be considered as part of this Treaty and shall have the same force as if it were inserted therein. The two Governments will amicably agree respecting the necessary articles to be furnished to those persons and also as to their respective escorts should such be deemed necessary": And the ratifications of said Treaty having been exchanged in the City of Washington on the 5th day of April in the year of 1832 but from various causes the contracting parties have been unable to perform the stipulations contained in the abovementioned 3d Article, and the period within which the said stipulations could have been
