The American Ambassador to the Minister of Foreign Affairs

F.O. No. 261

ROME, June 9, 1947

EXCELLENCY,

I have the honor to invite Your Excellency's attention to the air navigation, communication, and weather facilities installed at the following places in Italy by the United States military services:

- a. Rome, Ciampino
- b. Naples, Capodichino
- c. Pisa, San Giusto
- d. Amendola
- e. Cagliari, Elmas
- f. Palermo, Bocca di Falco
- g. Trapani (Borriozzo)
- h. Bari, Palese
- i. Milan, Linate
- j. Vibo Valencia

A list of the installations at these points is now being prepared and will be forwarded to Your Excellency for inclusion as an Annex to this note.¹ This list is being prepared by the competent United States Authorities in consultation with the appropriate Italian officials, taking into account the need for such facilities in order to operate in accordance with the requirement of the International Civil Aviation Organization ICAO. As those installations become surplus to United States military requirements, it is the intention of my Government that they, together with one year's supply of maintenance parts and expendable supplies, wherever theater surplus stocks permit, should be transferred to the Italian Government. In addition, the Government of the United States of America, through either the United States Army,
