22 Stat. 979; Treaty Series 333

CONVENTION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND SPAIN CONCERNING TRADE-MARKS

The President of the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Spain, being desirous of securing reciprocal protection for the trade-marks and manufactured articles of their respective citizens or subjects within the dominions or territories of the other country, have resolved to conclude a Convention for that purpose, and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries: the President of the United States, Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Esquire, Secretary of State of the United States; and His Majesty the King of Spain, His Excellency Don Francisco Barca, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in the United States; who, after reciprocal communication of their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles, to wit:

ARTICLE I

The citizens and subjects of each of the two contracting parties shall enjoy, in the dominions and possessions of the other, the same rights as the natives of the country in everything relating to the ownership of trade-marks, industrial designs or models, or of manufactures of any kind.

ARTICLE II

Persons desiring to secure the aforesaid protection shall be obliged to comply with the formalities required by the laws of the respective countries.
