44 Stat. 2007; Treaty Series 711

The United States of America and Her Majesty the Queen of the Netherlands;

Desiring to terminate in accordance with the principles of international law and any applicable treaty provisions the differences which have arisen and now subsist between them with respect to the sovereignty over the Island of Palmas (or Miangas) situated approximately fifty miles southeast from Cape San Augustin, Island of Mindanao, at about five degrees and thirty-five minutes (5°35′) north latitude, one hundred and twenty-six degrees and thirty-six minutes (126°36′) longitude east from Greenwich;

Considering that these differences belong to those which, pursuant to Article I of the Arbitration Convention concluded by the two high contracting parties on May 2, 1908,² and renewed by agreements dated May 9, 1914,³ March 8, 1919,⁴ and February 13, 1924,⁵ respectively, might well be submitted to arbitration;

Have appointed as their respective plenipotentiaries for the purpose of concluding the following special agreement;

The President of the United States of America: Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of State of the United States of America, and

¹Date of decision of arbitrator that "The Island of Palmas (or Miangas) forms in its entirety a part of Netherlands territory."
